Dear Parents and Carers,

Another busy week in school. The children in Key Stage 2 sound amazing as they rehearse for Aladdin. Our wonderful teaching assistants have done an amazing job making sure that all the children have their costumes. It will certainly be a colourful show! The props look fabulous too, thank you to all the staff and children for their hard work.

This week I had a meeting with the new Cornwall Attendance Officer. She has shared more details around the changes directed by the government that will come into effect in September 2024. If you are thinking about booking time away next year, please make sure that you check the school timetable. Once the documents have been published, I will share them with you. Holiday absence from school during term time will be followed up by the Local Authority. There will of course be permission granted for exceptional circumstances.

Non-uniform day was a great success and I am pleased to let you know that Madelaine and Daisy raised £279.45 for the Neonatal Intensive care Unit at Derriford.

In the next couple of weeks, I will be asking for volunteers to support with animal care over the summer holidays. Thank you to everyone for last weekend when the rabbits decided that their new run was not big enough!

I hope that you have a wonderful weekend.

Mrs Tracey Fletcher

Value Awards

Nala in Reception Class for always making the right decisions and running errands for your adults.

Charlie in Year 1 can always be trusted to try his very best in all lessons.

Dexter in Year 2 tries really hard to always be truthful. He models this super behaviour to other children and we are really proud of him for this.

Jack in Year 3 who is a kind, caring and trustworthy member of the class. He can be trusted to make the right choices and sets a great example to others. Well done Jack.

Isla B in Year 4 for being a trustworthy member of the class who always does what is right, and helps with many things around the school!

Daniel in Year 5 is a member of our class who is always trustworthy. He will always do the right thing and is 100% reliable.

All the adults in the school know that they can rely on Bella in Year 6 to do the right thing, handle responsibility given to her and I am sure her friends also feel the same way. You are such a good role model Bella.

This week in school we have...

This week Year 5 have been thinking about how Christians show freedom and justice. We have completed some beautiful pictures to advertise lessons, we have been working hard on our sentence construction and discussing if children are becoming lazy due to too much screen use... very interesting discussions are happening here!

This week Year 3 have been practising their sporting skills outdoors in preparation for Sports Day, doing relays and obstacle courses with lots of enthusiasm and good team spirit. They have also been exploring different world religions and the importance of treating others how we would like to be treated.

This week in Reception Class we have been doing lots of exploring of the world around us. We have been looking at how we can sort different things into groups and spotting the odd one out. We have also been finishing looking at the Gruffalo with our character descriptions and looking at using our adjectives.

This week in Year 4 we started looking into significant events and why people choose to remember them. In the first lesson we discussed what a significant event means, before thinking about five significant events in our life.

This week Year 2 have been amazing history detectives working out who Rosa Parks was and what she might have done. They linked it to their past learning about Nelson Mandela and made Mrs Oakes really proud. They have also started learning about report writing and have found out lots of cheetah facts. In maths they have been problem solving carefully. They did some amazing artwork in RE and have built some fantastic clay huts.

This week Year 1 have been beginning to write their descriptive stories and learning about the fraction half. They have also been thinking about how Christians show that everyone is valuable. In topic they had to think about why people went on seaside holidays over 100 years ago.

Year 6 always seem to have such busy weeks! As well as rehearsing for the production (which is sounding amazing), they have nearly completed their statistics topic. They are really enjoying the English/science topic of evolution. We went on a butterfly hunt to the park which we all enjoyed. We also got in a cheeky bit of fitness using the apparatus up there!
